

African-Americans smoke less, but have more smoking-related diseases than Caucasians.

Smoking causes cancer, heart disease and a higher chance of stroke.

The Good News

If smoking is stopped, the health risks caused by smoking are reduced.

For more information on quitting, call the S.C. Tobacco Quitline Toll Free:

1-800-QUIT-NOW
(1-800-784-8669)

African-Americans smoke less, but have more smoking-related diseases than Caucasians.

Smoking causes cancer, heart disease and a higher chance of stroke.

The Good News

If smoking is stopped, the health risks caused by smoking are reduced.

For more information on quitting, call the S.C. Tobacco Quitline Toll Free:

1-800-QUIT-NOW
(1-800-784-8669)

African-Americans smoke less, but have more smoking-related diseases than Caucasians.

Smoking causes cancer, heart disease and a higher chance of stroke.

The Good News

If smoking is stopped, the health risks caused by smoking are reduced.

For more information on quitting, call the S.C. Tobacco Quitline Toll Free:

1-800-QUIT-NOW
(1-800-784-8669)

